HOMEcoming TO BE NOVEMBER 3

BANQUET, PEP FESTS, CONCERTS,
PARADE, AND COBBER GAME
BEING PLANNED

Saturday, November 3, will be the annual Homecoming day for all M. S. T. C. students. An all-day program has been planned by the Student Council.

Two changes have been made in the program as previously announced. There will be but few stunts, since the Freshmen are to have a program of this kind at the Hallowe'en party. A few stunts relating to the impending football game will be given on the Friday evening program, however, together with the band concert and pep fest.

Prize Is Donated.

Martinson's jewelry store is offering a loving cup for the best float appearing on the parade. The various organizations have been urged to prepare floats. The name of the winning organization will be engraved on the cup.

The parade will start at 11 o'clock Saturday morning from the College. The game with the Cobbers starts at 2:30 in the afternoon on Memorial Field. After the Alumni dinner in the evening an all-school party will be held in the gym.

Committees Named.

The following are the various committees appointed

Committees on Pep Fest, Stunt Program and Band Concert: Francis Bordsen, chairman; Reuben Parson, Evelyn Blaha, Nellie Carlson. Their duties are to arrange the Friday evening program, organize the Pep Squad and a torchlight parade, work out some stunts about the impending game, and arrange for the band concert.

Those in charge of the parade for Saturday are: Ernest Gates, chairman; Marion Cronin, and Oscar Thompson. They are to arrange the organizations having floats, in a definite order, and plan the course and general technique of the "Big Parade."

The Alumni-Student-Faculty banquet will be in charge of Mr. Ole Sande, chairman; Annabelle Godfrey, Frances Benedict, and Audrey Casselman. They will plan, decorate, and arrange the covers for the banquet.

The decorating committee headed by Christian Schulstad, with Roseltha Nesheim, Allen Erickson, Ruth Meilicke, Margaret Taylor, and Dorothy Bemis, will care for all decorations both on and off the campus. They will use their influence in the auditorium, on the football field, in the business windows down town, and any place that might help to make the alumni feel and catch the Homecoming spirit.

The Saturday night frolic will be in the hands of Christine Lucken, chairman; Beatrice Thomas, Ruth Ellison, Ernest Johnson, and Robert Walls. They are to plan a definite program, decorate the gym, and procure an orchestra.

With the aid of the Band, the Cobber game, and the co-operation of all the organizations, this Homecoming should be just a little bigger and just a little finer than any of the preceding ones have been.

1000 COPIES NOW PRINTED WEEKLY

With this week's issue, The MISTIC regular weekly circulation has reached the record mark of one thousand. Only half of this number go to supply students and faculty on the campus. The rest are sent to alumni, exchanges, high schools of the Western Minnesota district, newspapers of the district, and advertisers.

Three hundred alumni members are now paid up, and that number is being increased at the rate of approximately twenty a day, according to Mr. Sande, president of the Alumni Association. The dues of one dollar entitle to any directory which may be published.

The new ruling on the matter of dues is meeting with an enthusiastic response, judging by the number who have paid up, which constitutes a record for the College. The executive committee, in addition to Mr. Sande, consists of Eva Mark, vice-president; Ralph Iverson, secretary, and Wallace Rosel, treasurer, met this summer and formulated plans for this year.

ROUSING COLLEGE PROGRAM GIVEN

BAND BENEFIT PICTURE, LOCAL NEWS-REEL, YELLS, FEAT-URE EVENING

Last evening, beginning at 7 p. m., a varied program of music, moving pictures, both commercial and local, and pep demonstrations was held in Weld Hall auditorium.

The commercial picture, presented for the benefit of the band, consisted of a five-reel feature and a two-reel comedy. Following this was given the first M. S. T. C. news-reel, of college folk, for college folk, and produced by college folk.

Local "Movie" Shown.

The local news pictures were taken at the Valley City M. S. T. C. game of Saturday, October 6, and included views of the teams in action, of the band parading on the field, and a few "close-ups" of Thelma Erickson, cheer leader, President MacLean, and others. The production was taken by the Cine-Kodak recently purchased by the College and operated by Dr. C. P. Archer.

The College band played and the audience sang the new "Line-up March," words to which were written by local people. This selection is intended to take the place of "We're from M. S. T. C." for the initial song to be sung and played on the field preceding the entrance of the team, as portrayed in The MISTIC last week.

Mr. Schwendeman operated the College projector.

LOCAL MINISTERS SPEAK IN CHAPEL

Dr. Best, pastor of the First Baptist church of Fargo, spoke at chapel assembly Wednesday of this week concerning "What Is the Important Thing in Life?" One's life is centered too closely with each individual's little cycle of interest, lacking a far-sighted view of the whole situation, according to Dr. Best. Things of consequence to us in the future are subordinated to our present petty desires.

In spite of the complete changes which we undergo there is a single current running throughout our lives which would lead us to conclude that after death the life current still exists and that it is a part of our moral and spiritual selves.

Rev. Baab Here Last Week.

"The Beauty of Duty," was the subject of a speech given in chapel assembly last Wednesday by Rev. Otto Baab, pastor of the Grace M. E. church of Moorhead.

In this speech Reverend Baab declared that a beauty which we can all possess is the beauty which we find in our work. The beauty of characters is the supreme ideal of any group of peoples.

ERNEST GATES PROMOTED IN N. D. NATIONAL GUARD

Ernest Gates has recently been appointed as Sergeant-Major of the 164th Infantry, North Dakota National Guard, according to information received here.

The appointment was confirmed on October 12, by General Fraser, in command of the North Dakota area. The rank of Sergeant-Major is the highest office in the regiment that is open to a non-commissioned officer. Mr. Gates has been a member of this branch of the military service for several years, serving as a technical sergeant prior to his promotion.

BULLETIN ON RURAL SCHOOLS BEING PRINTED

The bulletin, "Improvement of Reading in Rural Schools Through Individualized Instruction," by Miss Bieri and Dr. Archer is now being printed and will be in circulation in several weeks.

TOLLEFSON LOAN FUND IS STARTED

FUND NAMED FOR FIRST PRESI-DENT OF COLLEGE STU-DENT COUNCIL

Alfred R. Tollefson

In memory of Alfred Tollefson, B. E. '27, one of its members, Lambda Phi Sigma, honorary educational fraternity, has started a loan fund for the purpose of helping worthy young men who come to college and need financial assistance. This memorial has been named The Alfred Tollefson Loan Fund.

This fund has three sources: contributions from active members of the fraternity, from alumni members, and from any individuals outside the organization who are interested in the work being done. Several contributions have already been made.

Died as Result of Fall.

Mr. Tollefson died at Medford, Ore., last July 14, as the result of a fall from a cliff. The funeral was held at his home in Ashby, Minn., on July 22, 1928.

While a student here, Mr. Tollefson took an unusually active part in the school life. He was one of the organizers of the Student Council, and served as its first president. He was the editor of The MISTIC during the latter part of the school year of 1926-27, and the assistant editor of the Praeceptor during the same time. The MISTIC has just recently pledged a contribution of ten dollars in memory of its former editor. Various organizations claimed him as a member: Lambda Phi Sigma, Owls, Delta Sigma, Male Chorus, Y. M. C. A., and Althaia.

Wrote Best Story.

The advanced composition class during the summer quarter of last year judged a short story by Mr. Tollefson as being the best piece of writing that had appeared in The MISTIC during the year.

Following his graduation, Mr. Tollefson served as superintendent of schools at Cook, St. Louis county, Minnesota. His work there was spoken of with praise by C. H. Barnes, county superintendent.

CANDIDATES FOR SOPH PRESIDENCY ANNOUNCED

Wilson Burton, Eunice Johnson, and Helen Kiland and Glee Burrows are the candidates whose names have been entered for the office of the presidency of the Sophomore class. This vacancy has occurred through the resignation of Thelma Erickson, who felt her work as president of the Student Council prevented her from assuming the duties of the class.

CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS

Officers for the coming year will be elected at the Schoolmasters Club meeting to be held at Fergus Falls, October 26.

THE NEW COLLEGE PEP SONG

(Line-up March)

Come M. S. T. C., line up for the game,
We'll cheer for you;
Let's march on down the field to victory
And glory, too (Rah! Rah!)

Come, fellows, line up for your Alma Mater;
Win today (Rah! Rah!)

The Crimson and the White will always wave
Where'er the fray.

DISTRICT EDITORS DISCUSS SERVICE

That the editors of this section of the state like the type of news-service The MISTIC is trying to give the public is evidenced by the enthusiastic co-operation they are giving.

As a result of the work of the state editor and the co-operation of Miss Hougham, the librarian, we now are able to supply many of our students with newspapers from their home towns. To these papers, we have given news of our students as shown in The MISTIC.

Battle Lake Writes.

Many editors have written to congratulate us on our news service. A letter from Mrs. Edith W. Tiller, publisher of "The Battle Lake Review," part of which is reproduced here, is typical of their attitude. She writes—

"Congratulations upon your new service! We have greatly enjoyed the issues sent us and have mentioned The MISTIC in several places in this issue of the 'Review'. We appreciate your calling our attention to items of interest to our readers, as sometimes we neglect to read all. Will also appreciate your calling our attention to Clitherall people as well as Battle Lake folks, as we serve Clitherall also. Have already put you on our exchange list.

"With best wishes for your success."

Warren Exchanges.

A letter from the Warren "Sheaf" states: "We wish to thank you for the news tips given this paper concerning Warren people attending M. S. T. C. We are also interested in all Marshall county students, so believe an exchange with your college paper will be entirely satisfactory. The MISTIC will go on our exchange list with the next issue."

Detroit Interested.

Another letter from Mr. B. Ben-shoff, assistant editor of the Detroit Record, Detroit Lakes, reads in part: "Twice during the past two weeks we have received information from you relative to the activities of the Detroit Lakes students at the College. We find these news items very desirable and that such a practise on your part is, indeed, very commendable. "Here in the city we take a special interest to keep tab on the progress of our students when they attend the various colleges."

AFFILIATED SCHOOLS PEOPLE TO BE GUESTS

Teachers and school board members of the Clearview, Oakmound, Grover, and Gunderson affiliated schools will be dinner guests of the education department, Wednesday, October 24, at the New Columbia Hotel, Moorhead.

PEDS TO BATTLE ST. CLOUD TODAY

TEAM IN GOOD CONDITION FOR IMPENDING STRUGGLE; ST.
CLOUD IS STRONG

(By Allen Erickson)

This afternoon at 3:00 o'clock the Moorhead gridsters will match strength, wit, and strategy with the St. Cloud Teachers on Memorial Field. This is not a conference game, but never the less it will be fast and close, as St. Cloud ranks as high or higher than any team the Peds will meet either in or out of the conference competition.

Last year they beat the Peds 7-0 in a heart breaking game full of fumbles, penalties, and loose playing. According to Captain Smith, who observed St. Cloud in action last Saturday, they have a smashing, driving line equally as husky as the Crimson's forward wall, and a fleet and tricky backfield. But these reports don't mean much—the same kind of information was advanced about Valley City.

St. Cloud Brings 25.

The St. Cloud squad came to Moorhead last night and will probably stay until Saturday morning. They brought about 25 men with them. The Ped squad is almost at its best insofar as injuries are concerned. With a two weeks layoff from active competition the sore spots have gradually gone away, and the limping legs have been made whole.

Smith, Nemzek, and Bielfeldt, who have been nursing diverse injuries, have pronounced themselves fit and ready for the starting whistle. Oraas, hard hitting guard, engaged only in light workouts the fore part of the week on account of a "charley horse," but was going well by Wednesday.

Baldwin in Shape.

Baldwin, whose shoulder was wrenched in the Valley game, is back in shape again and he will be seen in his old position at half this afternoon. The rest of the first stringers, Vinz, Nelson, Ireland, Edwards, Gilpin, and Ingersoll are in excellent shape and eager for the impending struggle.

The Peds have been scrimmaging every night with intensive drill for both line and backfield men. It has been particularly gratifying to Coach Nemzek to see the promising development of the reserves. In case of injuries he will have a wealth of material to draw from to reinforce the team.

Team Has Chalk Talk.

Last Saturday night all the football fellows were assembled at the Armory, where a light supper was served, followed by a rousing talk by the coach. He stressed a rigorous observation of training rules, pointing out that undoubtedly the team that kept itself in the best condition would win the conference. He also introduced some new formations which were subsequently developed on the gridiron.

Motion Picture Studied.

Tuesday a motion picture of the Valley City game was shown to the Ped squad and the men had a chance to see how they look from the sidelines. This picture, photographed and projected by Dr. Archer, was invaluable in showing each man what he had done, and what he might have done, in each situation. It is hoped that in the future more of these pictures may be shown to help overcome and guard against weaknesses in individual players.

Next week the fighting Ped meteorites sojourn to Jamestown, where they will meet those worthies in the most critical game of the season.

COLLEGIANS PERFORM IN MUSICAL COMEDY

A number of college students and alumni are members of the cast of the musical comedy, "Here's Your Hat," sponsored by the Rector's Guild of the St. John's Episcopal church. Among those participating are: Carol Hagen, Lillian Halstrom, Mary Robinson, Christine Lucken, Margaret Taylor, Lois Bestic, Gladys Sebelius, Annabelle Godfrey, Ruth Meilicke, Marion Cronin, Francis Bordsen, John Costain, Frank Nemzek, '27, and Curtis Ballard, '25.

The plan was presented last evening and will again be performed this evening at eight o'clock, in the Moorhead High School auditorium.

A fee of 10 cents will be charged at the Hallowe'en Party to cover the cost of refreshments.

THE MiSTiC

A weekly newspaper published by Moorhead State Teachers College every Friday of the college year. Printed in the College Print Shop, and issued at the College.
Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Moorhead, Minnesota. Subscription price, activity fee to students; all others $1.50 a year (includes summer term).

DON'T GET DISCOURAGED

"Gee, wonder if I'll get one?" "Wasn't that test awful?"
"What does she think we are, anyway?"

These were oft-repeated questions during the past week! Students watched their mail-boxes closely, nervously expecting the dreaded "flunk slips," their uneasiness increasing as the time went on.

Finally they arrived, and low groans mingled with sighs of relief were heard. Greatly varied were the expressions of those who received them, from the plainly fearful looks of the Freshmen to the "I don't care" looks of the Sophomores and upper-classmen. And then the exclamations were: "Wonder if I'll flunk?" "Think I'll have to drop it?", or if one was of the more fortunate group; "Boy, what a relief!"

While one should make a brave attempt during the first half of the term to make good grades and thereby prevent these notices from coming, the student should not be discouraged if a "flunk slip" is found in the mail box. The instructors do not wish to discourage anyone; the improvement slip is meant to be an incentive, and should be regarded as such by those who receive them. It is simply an attempt on the part of the instructor to give the students a fair chance, by warning them while there is yet time to make good.

If this is your first term here, and you received a notice, cheer up! The "flunk slip" does not necessarily mean what the term implies, that you are going to fail, but it does mean that you will have to renew your endeavors, if you hope to make an average grade in the subject. You can make the grade if you try to. Most students graduate without ever having failed in any subject. Why can't you?

DO YOU QUALIFY?

Did you ever stop to analyze your abilities in order to test your fitness for a college career? It seems that we come to M. S. T. C. with our high school diplomas as testimonials of personal assurances of success. I believe that high school diplomas, or even success in college entrance examinations, are merely indications of the attainment of rather specific facts. They do not assure success on the walks of college life. Therefore we search for a more personal test; we wish to know what the individual is made of. Considering this viewpoint, Professor Henry Louis Smith, of Washington and Lee University, has devised a simple test for the prospective college student. Professor Smith sets forth four simple questions which he considers are of much more importance than any entrance examinations.

"First of all, Mr. Smith wants to know if the prospective student is man enough to get up promptly every morning, get to his meals and to school on time every day, and to go to bed at a fixed hour every night, all of his own initiative, and without a word of reminder from anyone.

"Secondly, he asks whether the candidate can go off by himself every day and study all of his lessons until he knows them, without having anyone tell him to get to work.

"The third question is whether the candidate can carry loose change in his pocket without spending it.

"Mr. Smith's fourth question deals with the honesty of the candidate, and his ability to refrain from 'cheating' during examinations, no matter how easy it may seem to do so nor how great the temptations are. 'Until you can be safely trusted with entire liberty in matters involving your truthfulness and honor,' he says, 'stay away from college. You are not yet 'prepared', whatever your age, height, or units.'"

At first, you may consider Professor Smith's four questions rather trivial. Nevertheless, the above four points furnish the criteria for most of the failures in college life. Be sincere. Are you qualified for college life? Are you merely wasting your time and the time of others walking, just walking with the crowd?
—M. C.

THE PED PEPYS

Up at the usual hour and looked out upon a dark and dismal world, whereupon I immediately took to my bed again, since it was raining in addition to being Sunday. Arrived at the boarding house in time to secure some nourishment although most of it had been devoured by the other gentlemen who board there.

It being past one by the clock, I took myself off for the Simson brothers' room in quest of news and adventure. Here I found news, but of what a sad nature! George, the elder of the two brothers, has well known interests, or rather did have, in a certain member of the weaker and more irresponsible sex. It behooved me to comfort the young Beau Brummel, inasmuch as he was so disconsolate that he was almost gloomier than the weather. After hearing the facts of the case, I am resolved more than ever that women are not to be taken seriously. With this idea in mind I journeyed over to Fargo the following day and spent my extra money for a pair of trousers. When I left Signor Simson's company, along toward evening, he was comforted to the point where he was trying to sing, but the songs were of a sorrowful nature such as the "Orange Juice" song which runs like this: "Orange Juice sorry you made me cry," etc.

Then to Ye College Coffee Shoppe where I beheld a magnificent spectacle. Edward Skjonsby, Le Grande Critique, and one Monsieur Reubenio

Parsonippi, our gallant major of the drums in the band, were engaged in a heated argument as to the merits of a mustache as an aid in captivating the fair damsel's hearts. However, when I related the sad fate of Signor Simson they both departed in great haste for their respective razors. Feeling that I had saved two admirable young men from the road to ruin, I set out for home and so to bed.

RHAPSODY IN BLUE

You're going to dress for a date. Most anything will not do. You're reciting in American Gov't. Most anything will not do. You're writing a theme for World Lit. Most anything will not do. BUT when the editor cries out "Feature! Write one!" And bleakly you say, "On what?"

The grim answer comes, "Most anything will do." Sounds nice, doesn't it? Wish you could do Psychology that way? Yes—but wait a minute.

There's a wide, wide world when most anything will do. And there's an old saying: "The world is so full of a number of things, I'm sure we should all be as happy as kings." With this delightful philosophy in mind you look out of the window for one of that number of things to please the Editor, King of Kings. There's the wide blue sky, quite blue. There's the scattered gold of crackled leaves on a grey sidewalk—and Mr. Skjonsby walks across. But there is no banana peel there and he does not slip on it. Near the steps of the main building you see a Man and a Maid—but someone does not madly embrace Stew and find to her dismay that it's the janitor. Then one turns and looks down the hall for most anything at all. There's a world of shining varnish on a world of floor—Ted Nemzek comes walking down the hall but he isn't singing loudly "The Prisoner's Song" as he munches a big carrot.

Most anything at all will do—but it's hard to find the needle in the haystack when the needle isn't there.

STRAW VOTE TAKEN IN COUNTRY LIFE CLUB

The Country Life Club gathered together for a social hour, Monday evening from 6:45 to 7:30. Several games were played, and a few stunts were worked out. A straw vote as to who would be our next president was taken in which the result was 30-7 in favor of Hoover. Edythe Washell, Ruby Ily, and Lillian Flikke were appointed to serve as a refreshment committee for the remainder of the

50 Yearbooks Mailed To District Schools

The Praeceptor staff has sent out fifty of the 1928 Praeceptors to high school libraries of the Western district and state officials in various parts of the state. High school students will thus be enabled to see a pictorial review of life at M. S. T. C.

A copy of the Praeceptor as well as the weekly issue of The MISTIC, is sent to the Minnesota State Historical library by request of that institution.

DR. ARCHER LEAVES FOR ST. PAUL

WOMEN'S CLUBS SPONSOR TWO ESSAY CONTESTS

The General Federation of Women's Clubs announces two national essay contests, one for students of high schools, and one for college students. The subjects for these essays is "Why Should I Vote?" Cash prizes of five hundred dollars for the winners in each division will be awarded. John Hays Hammond is sponsoring the contest.

The essays shall not be less than seven hundred nor more than a thousand words in length. They must be delivered to the local chairman not later than December 1. Final awards will be announced not later than June 1, 1929.

The prizes are divided into a first prize of $250.00, a second prize of $150.00, and a third prize of $100.00. Any student who would like to try for one of these prizes should get detailed information as to preparation and identification from the local chairman, Mrs. J. Pierce Wolfe, 431 Seventh St. So., Moorhead; or telephone 466-R.
